Never finished high school?

Now you can get a diploma without going back

You already know why it's important to have a high school education. You've probably learned the hard way that it can be pretty difficult to get the kind of job you want without one. No matter how hard you're willing to work.

What can you do about it?

Maybe you've thought of trying again to get a diploma. But you've suffered enough classroom "battle fatigue" to last you a lifetime. So you'd hate to travel that route again even if you could.

But what if we told you that there was now a much better way to get a high school education? An adult way, which gives you regular high school subjects and your choice of practical vocational subjects which help you get started in one of a number of profitable fields.

That's the unique Wayne School way. You do your reading and assignments in your spare time, in the relaxed atmosphere of your own home, and "turn in" your completed assignments by mail. You don't have to give up your present job. You don't have to study or travel to class at inconvenient times.

And you needn't be afraid of dropping out all over again, if you had trouble with school before. Wayne's specially prepared lessons make even difficult subjects much easier to take. And Wayne grades your assignments in private, by mail. You're free from competitive classroom pressures. You stay relaxed, and your progress is much smoother.

If you're 17 or over and not now in school, why not send for more information? Mail coupon for our free booklet, "How to finish High School at home." You're in for a pleasant surprise.

SOME SMILES

The Date

There wasn't a car on the highway. Just a clear view straight ahead. And so it happened to Bill Thompson as it has happened to many an other driver. Down went his foot on the gas pedal. It almost seemed as though he was flying. Then his keen ears heard the siren of a police car. And a look in his mirror told him he better slow down. Since the officer in that car was signalling to him by hand to pull over, which he did at the next convenient shoulder. The officer pulled up the patrol car in back of him.

"The charge ought to be flying without a pilot's license," said the officer. "Go ahead and think up a good one this time. Why you were doing 82 miles per hour when the limit is only 55 miles per hour."

"I think I have a very good explanation for what I did," was the reply of Bill Thompson. "I would never willingly or knowingly violate the speed law. But my mind was all mixed up. I am certain you would get mixed up if you had my problem."

"What is the problem?" asked the officer rather cautiously. He didn't want to walk into a trap of any kind.

"I like beautiful girls," explained the driver. "I just can't seem to remember what appointment I made. Was it one o'clock with three girls? Or was it at three o'clock with one girl? Can you help me out?"

"Of course," smiled the officer as he began to write out the ticket. "You have a date at two o'clock with one judge. So follow my patrol car in your car."

Music Hath a Charm

Music is said to have a certain magic all of its own. When you are sad, music can make you feel gay again. In one of the sayings, "Music hath a charm that will sooth even the savage." Could be so, and then again it might not work that way. Out in the days of the Old West, the musician was always welcomed. He might play an old violin, he might play a banjo, or even a guitar. If he had a piano in his wagon, now that was something real special.

Jim McCoy played a guitar. Some say he picked it up in Mexico. But with that guitar he would travel from settlement to settlement. Sometimes he would join a western wagon train. And as the ranches sprung up, he was always a most welcome guest.

But in one respect he differed from other western musicians. He carried two .44's and a belt full of cartridges. No matter where he went-the guitar and the revolvers always went with him. Yet, so far as anyone could remember, he never once took a gun out of the holster. Frank Denamim, of the Herald-Despatch interviewed him.

"They tell me you are the only man the Indians never molested. Could go from one tribe to another in safety. The redskins enjoyed listening to your music. That's what protected you. But then, why did you carry two loaded revolvers with you."

"You got a good point there," conceded the musician. "First man to ever ask me that question. So I answer you with a question. You just tell me what I would do if I played my soothing music for some Indians-and they turned out all to be deaf?"

*********

The Street Vendor

In my home town, 34th. Street and 42nd. Street are the busy cross-sections of the country, and perhaps even of the world. In addition to the many shops on the streets, you have a class of sellers of merchandise known as street vendors. They pay no taxes, no rent, no electricity bills, and even don't collect a sales tax as required by law. They do the best to be alert and spot the cop who is headed their way. To give out a summons for what they are doing.

I was watching one of these street vendors attracting a crowd when suddenly an old woman pushed her way right up to him.

"You are nothing but a big fakir," she shouted. "I want my money back. You charged me one dollar for this key case. I saw the same one in the store at the corner for seventy five cents. You should be cheaper than he is. Not the other way around."

That street vendor didn't lose his "cool." He had the answer for her at the tip of his tongue.

"Madam," he began, "What I say to you is also for the ears of the people around me. Do you realize how high my expenses are? I get at least two or three police summons a day. Add that up and it takes a dent out of my profit. Then I have to hire a guard to help me. See that fat man right there? He gets fifteen dollars a day. Just to protect me. There are snatch thieves and muggers even in this area. And I carry insurance on my merchandise. So you can see if is hard for an honest man like me to support a wife and seven children."

Know something? She walked away and he continued to make sales!

AHOY, MATES! Let's play a NEW game...

Spy-All Lets You "See Through" Walls, Fences and Locked Doors!

Secret of Private Detectives and Industrial Spies Revealed!

A remarkable optical device about half the size of a cigarette now makes it possible for you to see without being seen. People who relax in "privacy" have no way of knowing that you can see everything they do!

Spy-All allows you to secretly observe every action—while you stay safely hidden. Operation of the tiny device is silent, almost impossible to detect. The eye-piece is no bigger than the head of a pin!

If you drilled an ordinary hole through a wall, fence or door, you could see very little. But installation of Spy-All's unique optical principle, called "X-pand," multiplies your field of vision. With X-pand, almost no detail or movement in a room can escape your Spy-All sight! That gives you some idea of Spy-All's powers! But the real surprise is the price: three dollars!

Unlimited Uses:

Spy-All's uses are limited only by your interests and imagination!

Spy-All can penetrate a 3-inch-thick wall in your home, office or factory. The highest fence or thickest door can't stop you from observing—without being observed!

Professional Uses Suggested:

Private and hotel detectives. Insurance investigators. Undercover agents. Security guards. Store owners—watch shoplifting suspects. Employers—get eye-witness proof of loafing or theft. Hospital staff—watch restless patients without disturbing them.

Camera hobbyists can even take pictures through its low-distortion lens! And Spy-All has possibilities that Candid Camera never dreamed of!

Order Spares and Extras!

Order spares so you're never denied sudden or unexpected opportunities. Order extras for trusted friends; they might be glad to pay you a handsome profit.

The Spy-All principle was perfected in Germany. They are now being sold by a special division (Detection Appliances) of a reputable mail order firm, located at 466 North Western Avenue in Los Angeles. Their total sales throughout the U.S. are over $1,000,000. The owner has been a respected local businessman for 19 years.

5-Year Service Guarantee:

Spy-All is sold with this 5-year guarantee: If it fails to work due to any defect, without any charge, D.A. will either repair or replace it—or at its option, refund the purchase price.
